

Initiative

Using your own judgement to make decisions and to do things without needing to be told what to do.

I can use initiative by:

- Thinking about how I can solve problems without support.
- I support my friends to solve problems too.